The story behind Solentro!

People often ask us what Solentro means.

Solentro is a word we have created. To us it means "to give" – that's how it all started.

Hampus & Tobias Schildfat, brothers and founders, wanted to give something unique and very personal to their father on his birthday. They contacted friends and family and asked them to describe him.

Out of these greetings they made a book.

What they presented was a journey through time and a story about himself. It was a greatly appreciated gift and soon Solentro was born...

Now, five years later, anyone can make their own book at Solentro! We have helped customers in twenty different countries to achieve this.

The journey continues and we hope you will join us!

Greetings!
